Also on January 25, 1988, AT&T Communications of the South Central States, Inc. filed a Motion for Extension of Time of 45 days through March 17, 1988, in which to respond to the Commission's Order.

On January 29, 1988, ALLTEL Kentucky, Inc., filed a Motion for Extension of Time to respond to the Commission's Order.

The telephone companies cited the complexity of the information and the volume of information as reasons for the need of an extension.

The Commission having been advised, is of the opinion that such motions should be granted. Therefore, all parties have until March 17, 1988, in which to file responses to the Commission's December 29, 1987, Order.

The Commission is of the opinion that establishing a task force for the Independent Telephone average schedule companies is premature and defers response to this request pending review of the companies' response to the December 29, 1987, Order.

BE IT SO ORDERED.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 29th day of January, 1988.
